

Contents

List of Tables	vii
List of Figures	vii
List of Abbreviations	viii
Series Editor's Foreword	xi
Introduction David L. GROSSMAN	1
Conceptual Overview
1 Globalised Economies and Liberalised Curriculum: New Challenges for National Citizenship Education Kerry J. KENNEDY	13
East Asia
2 The Development of Citizenship Education Curriculum in Hong Kong after 1997: Tensions between National Identity and Global Citizenship Wing On LEE	29
3 Taiwan's New Citizenship Curriculum: Changes and Challenges Shiowlan DOONG	43
4 Citizenship Curriculum in China: A Shifting Discourse towards Chinese Democracy, Law Education and Psychological Health Minghua ZHONG and Wing On LEE	61
5 Citizenship Education Curriculum in Japan Kazuko OTSU	75
South/Southeast Asia
6 The Anatomy of an Islamic Model: Citizenship Education in Pakistan Iftikhar AHMAD	97
7 Citizenship Discourse in the Context of Decentralisation: The Case of Indonesia Mary FEARNLEY-SANDER and Ella YULAELOWATI	111

8	The Building of a Nation and Ideas of Nationhood: Citizenship Education in Malaysia Ibrahim Ahmad BAJUNID	127
9	Political Pragmatism and Citizenship Training in Singapore Tai Wei TAN and Lee Chin CHEW	147
	Pacific Rim
10	Democracy at a Crossroads: Political Tensions Concerning Educating for Citizenship in the United States Thomas SCOTT and John J. COGAN	165
11	More Civics, Less Democracy: Competing Discourses for Citizenship Education in Australia Kerry J. KENNEDY	181
12	“Creative and Innovative Citizenry”: Exploring the Past, Present and Future of Citizenship Education in New Zealand Carol MUTCH	197
	Reflective Analysis
13	Tensions and Contentions in Citizenship Curriculum in Asia and the Pacific Wing On LEE	215
	Contributors	233
	References	237
	Index	263