

Notes on the Authors

Mark Bray is Dean of the Faculty of Education and Chair Professor of Comparative Education at the University of Hong Kong. He is also President of the World Council of Comparative Education Societies (WCCES). Among his specialisms is the economics and financing of education. He has conducted consultancy assignments in over 50 countries for such bodies as the Asian Development Bank, British Council, Commonwealth Secretariat, UNDP, UNESCO, UNICEF and the World Bank. He has also published extensively in the fields of educational planning and comparative education. Address: Comparative Education Research Centre, Faculty of Education, The University of Hong Kong, Pokfulam Road, Hong Kong, China. E-mail: mbray@hku.hk.

Seng Bunly is the director of BN Consult in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. He originally trained in the medical profession, before turning to work in the social sector. He holds an MSc in financial economics from the School of Oriental & African Studies at the University of London, and has considerable experience of consultancy projects funded by both national and international bodies. This includes membership of the team for Cambodia's National Poverty Reduction Strategy; and he has been the local analyst in Cambodia for the Program Impact Assessment of the United Nations Capital Development Fund. Address: BN Consult, No. 62, 111 Street, Phnom Penh, Cambodia. E-mail: sengbunly@bnckh.com.