

2008 International Conference

Language Issues in English-medium Universities: A Global Concern

*Co-hosted by Faculty of Arts and Faculty of Education, in collaboration with English Centre,
The University of Hong Kong*

Date: 18-20 June 2008

Venue: The University of Hong Kong

The Conference will provide a forum to discuss and debate language issues in English-medium universities internationally. The participation of tertiary teachers, researchers, applied linguists and ELT professionals from all regions and contexts is welcome.

Topics will include:

- national and institutional medium of instruction policies;
- the dynamics of English and other local, foreign and minority languages in higher education;
- integrating language and content in higher education contexts;
- the role of English language support centres in English-medium universities;
- the use of English across disciplines;
- evaluation and assessment issues;
- the interaction of the formal and informal curriculum;
- the attitudes, experiences and practices of students and staff;
- language identity and its impact on learning; and
- language issues in English-medium universities in specific contexts and disciplines

Deadline for submission of abstracts: 31 October 2007

For more information and guidelines regarding abstract submission, please visit the conference website <http://www.hku.hk/clear/conference08.html>

Enquiries

Miss Scarlet Poon, Project Officer; Email: scarletws@hku.hk/ Tel: (852) 2859 2395

Dr Chris Davison, Conference Convenor; Email: cdavison@hku.hk/ Tel: (852) 2859 2783

The Conference organisation is funded by the HKU Strategic Research Theme - Constituent Theme "Languages, Media and Communication: Language in Education and Assessment", with the support of Faculty of Business and Economics, Faculty of Engineering, Faculty of Medicine, Faculty of Science and Faculty of Social Sciences, The University of Hong Kong.